Hearing God’s Voice

A Retreat for Women

Does life’s continuous juggle of responsibilities have you wishing, “Calgon, take me away!”

Come away for a refreshing spirit-filled weekend with us. Join us as Gloria Roberts, a speaker, teacher and pending author, shares with us how to not only hear God’s voice, but teaches us how to open the door to a two-way dialogue with the Lord. Together we will learn how to overcome the blocks and hindrances that cause us to be unable to hear God’s voice. Gloria will lead us into discovering what true listening prayer is and the transformation this can bring when we listen and pray for ourselves and our loved ones.

Friday, May 21st - Sunday, May 23rd
Hyatt Place Richmond Airport
Richmond, VA 23231

Guest Speaker, Gloria Roberts

We are happy to welcome Gloria Roberts, as our guest speaker. Gloria Roberts is a speaker, teacher, and pending author.

She is a founder of Elijah House Canada and served as the Executive Director for Elijah House Canada for 11 years.

Gloria is gifted in the areas of teaching, writing, leadership and prayer ministry. Her teaching is challenging and founded on a deep love for the Word of God and for what facilitates genuine and lasting change in people's lives.

Gloria has degrees in Psychology and Law as well as courses in theology, prayer ministry and spiritual formation. She was a practicing attorney in Canada prior to reaching a turning point and becoming involved in full time ministry with Elijah House.

She is passionate about God and His desire to partner with people in the process of growing spiritually and emotionally, leading to maturity and a genuine integration of the fruit of the Spirit in their lives.

Gloria lives in Phoenix, AZ with her husband of 32 years, where she is focusing on developing transformational materials for pastors and leaders.
